FLAMINGOS BACK IN SEASON

The first program of Rooftop Movies has been revealed, signalling the official start of Perth's summer entertainment season.

Set six floors up above the hustle and bustle of Northbridge, the car park turned cinema is recognised as one of the most beautiful outdoor cinemas in the world.

Returning for its fifth year, the pop-up movie destination is home to spectacular city sunset views, retro caravans, comfy beanbags and palm trees high in the sky. The movie line-up is packed with a mix of blockbusters, new releases and a sprinkling of cult classics.

Rooftop Movies is presented by FRINGE WORLD Festival and CEO Marcus Canning said that a visit to the roof is a great way to shake off the winter blues.

"Our audience knows that summer is about to hit when Rooftop Movies kicks off. What a great way to farewell this cold weather and welcome some warmth by getting a group of friends together for a fun night out on the roof," Mr Canning said.

The first program for the Summer 2016/2017 season at Rooftop Movies kicks off on Thursday 27 October with the old-school western comedy Blazing Saddles (1974), followed by three nights of classic horror films perfect for your Halloween celebrations featuring Shawn of the Dead of Friday 28 October, Blair Witch on Saturday 29 October and Evil Dead 2 on Sunday 30 October.
